

POINT PETER WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT

CITY OF ST. MARYS | ST. MARYS, GEORGIA

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

- Construction management-at-risk engagement for an emergency upgrade and expansion to an existing wastewater treatment facility
- Phase 1 of the project was a 1.8 MGD emergency modification to the facility and Phase 2 expanded capacity to 4.0 MGD
- Project components included site development, tilt-up process/administration building, disinfection, effluent outfall with marine diffuser, influent pump stations, pretreatment structure upgrades with mechanical bar screen, secondary treatment process package plants, chemical feed, emergency generator, electrical and instrumentation
- Delivered on fast track schedule
- Phase 1 Shared Savings of $425,000 returned to client

HASKELL SERVICES PROVIDED

- Preconstruction Services: Estimating, Scheduling, Value Engineering and Constructability Reviews
- Permitting
- Construction
- Start-Up, Testing and Commissioning

